The State Workers' Compensation Commission originated in 1914 as the State Industrial Accident Commission (Chapter 800, Acts of 1914). In 1957, it was renamed the Workmen's Compensation Commission (Chapter 584, Acts of 1957) and, as of January 1, 1986, the Workers' Compensation Commission. By enactment of the new Labor and Employment Article of the Annotated Code, the Commission became the State Workers' Compensation Commission in 1991 (Chapter 8, Acts of 1991).

The Commission administers the Workers' Compensation Law. The Commission hears contested cases and holds hearings throughout the State, receives reports of accidents, and adjudicates claims for compensation arising under the law (Code Labor and Employment Article, secs. 9-301 through 9-316).

The Commission consists of ten members appointed to twelve-year terms by the Governor with Senate advice and consent. The Governor designates the chairperson.

The World War II Memorial Commission was formed in 1991 (Chapter 380, Acts of 1991). The Commission is compiling a list of Marylanders who sacrificed their lives or years of their life for their country during World War II. The Commission makes recommendations to the Governor and General Assembly on the design, construction, and placement of a memorial or monument to those Marylanders who served in World War II (Code 1957, Art. 41, sec. 18-303).

The Commission submitted a report to the Governor and General Assembly in September 1992.
