

In addition, Mrs. Townsend, a long-time advocate for children and families, chairs the Governor's Task Force on Children, Youth, and Families Systems Reform. She is a life-long champion of environmental conservation and a strong proponent of international trade and economic development. She has been actively involved in all these areas, professionally and as a private citizen, publishing articles in the Baltimore Sun, the Washington Post, the New York Times, the Washington Monthly, and several law reviews. Mrs. Townsend is the founder of the Robert F. Kennedy Human Rights Award. She was elected Chair of the Southern Region of the National Conference of Lieutenant Governors. She serves on the Advisory Board of the Export-Import Bank of the United States (EXIM Bank).

Born on July 4, 1951, Mrs. Townsend is a cum laude graduate of Harvard University and a graduate of the University of New Mexico Law School, where she was an editor of the law review. She has received numerous honorary degrees. Mrs. Townsend lives in Baltimore County with her husband, David, a professor at St. John's College in Annapolis, and three of their four daughters: Maeve, 16; Kate, 12; and Kerry, 4. Meaghan, 18, is in her sophomore year of college.

LOUIS L. GOLDSTEIN
Comptroller of the Treasury
(Democrat)

Louis L. Goldstein, Comptroller of the Treasury since 1963, was born in Prince Frederick on March 14, 1913. He was educated in Baltimore City and Calvert County public schools, at Washington

College, Chestertown, Maryland (B.S., 1935), and the University of Maryland School of Law (J.D., 1938). From 1939 to 1942, he was an elected delegate from Calvert County to the Maryland General Assembly. He enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps as a private in 1942 and was discharged in 1946 as a first lieutenant after service in the Asiatic and Pacific theatres. He is a captain (retired) in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve.

From 1947 through 1958, Mr. Goldstein was an elected State Senator from Calvert County. During that time he was Majority Leader (1951-1955) and President of the Senate (1955-1958). He was a member of the Legislative Council (1947-1958) and served as its Chair between 1955 and 1958. In 1958, he was elected Comptroller of the Treasury; he was reelected in 1962, 1966, 1970, 1974, 1978, 1982, 1986, 1990, and 1994. No one has served in statewide elected office in Maryland longer than Mr. Goldstein.

Mr. Goldstein and his late wife, Hazel, shared a legal practice in Prince Frederick. He also operates several farms. He is active in veterans, charitable and civic organizations. He served as President of the National Association of State Auditors, Comptrollers and Treasurers for 1969. He is Chair of the Board of Visitors and Governors of Washington College. He also has served as a delegate or alternate to fourteen Democratic Party National Conventions and was a member of the Platform and Resolutions Committee at the 1964, 1968, 1972, 1976, 1984, 1988, and 1992 conventions.

Morgan State University, Western Maryland College, Washington College, the University of Baltimore, University of Maryland College Park, University of Maryland at Baltimore, and Towson State University each have awarded Mr. Goldstein honorary doctorates. He has received the President's Medal from Mt. St. Mary's College and the Father Andrew White Medal from Loyola College. He has received the Financial Reporting Achievement Award from the Municipal Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada each year since 1981, the Distinguished Financial Leadership Award from the Association of Government Accountants, and the Scantlebury Award from the Joint Financial Management Improvement Program of the U.S. Government. He also has received other awards for his interest in civic affairs, education, historic preservation, promotion of tourism, outstanding management, veterans' affairs, and conservation.

Mr. Goldstein was married for forty-eight years to the former Hazel E. Horton and has three children, Philip, Louisa, and Margaret Senate. Mr. Goldstein resides at Oakland Hall, Prince Frederick, Maryland.