

Said bill being upon a second reading.

Pending which,

Mr. McCreery submitted the following amendment :

AMENDMENT PROPOSED.

Strike out all after the word "described" in the 44th line of section 13, down to the word "and" in the 49th line.

Which was read.

Mr. Merrick submitted the following amendment to the amendment submitted by Mr. McCreery :

Insert after word "inquisition" in 46th line, the words, where the sole cause for setting aside the inquisition was the insufficiency of the damages.

Which was rejected.

The question recurring upon the amendment submitted by Mr. McCreery,

The question being upon its adoption,

On motion of Mr. McCreery,

The yeas and nays were ordered and appeared, as follows :
