So the amendment submitted by Mr. Owings, was rejected.

Mr. Marbury submitted the following amendment :

Sec. 27, line 1, strike out the word "twenty" before the word "five," and insert the word thirty.

Which was rejected.

Mr. Marbury submitted the following amendment :

At end of section 27, add : should the events of war, threatened invasion, or insurrection, or intestine troubles require a greater sum of money than is annually appropriated for military purposes, the Governor of Maryland is hereby authorized to issue a defence loan in the name of the State, with legal rates of interest, which loan shall be exempt from city, county and State taxes ; and the defence loan so issued and made, shall be provided for by the General Assembly of Maryland at its next regular or special session.

Which was read.
