So the motion to reconsider was decided in the negative.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered the following message:

BY THE SENATE,
January 18, 1870.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We have received your message proposing that the two Houses of the General Assembly go into joint convention for the purpose of electing a Treasurer and non-concur therein, for the reason that according to the ruling of the Senate the message was received pending the taking of a second ballot.

By order,

AUGUSTUS GASSAWAY,
Secretary.

Which was read.

Mr. Marbury moved that the House do now proceed to another ballot for State Treasurer.

The question being upon concurring in the motion,

Mr. Marbury demanded the previous question,

The question now being, "shall the previous question be now put," it was concurred in.

The question then recurring upon the motion submitted by Mr. Marbury,

It was decided in the affirmative,
