Said Resolutions were then sent to the Senate.

The hour having arrived for taking up the order of the day,

On motion of Mr. Streett, (the rules being suspended,)

The further consideration of all the orders of the day was postponed, and

The House proceeded to the consideration of certain Revenue bills.

The bill entitled an Act to authorize the issuing of licenses to telegraph companies and express transportation companies, not organized under the laws of this State, to transact business therein,

Was read a second time and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

The bill entitled an Act to provide for cancelling the stocks or bonds of the State of Maryland, now held by the Treasurer to the credit of the Sinking Fund, and to provide for the investment of the augmentation of said Fund,
