CHAP. XCIV.

An Act to authorise Edward Barton and William Kelley to alter and change the public Road therein mentioned in Caroline County.
Lib. TH. No. 3, fol. 111.

Passed Dec 27.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly by the petition of Edward Barton and William Kelley, through whose lands the public road now runs, leading from Hunting creek mill to Fowling creek mill, that one of the petitioners, namely, Edward Barton, suffers great inconvenience in consequence of said road running through his farm, which obliges him to keep three gates on said road, they therefore think the turning said public road round the said Edward Barton's farm would be of no disadvantage to the public, therefore,

Preamble.
