

CHAP. CLXXXIX.

A Supplement to the act, entitled, An act concerning the Chancery Court. Lib. TH. No. 3, fol. 269.

BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That every respondent in any case now depending, or which may hereafter be brought in the chancery court of this state, shall have all the benefits and advantages which are given to complainants by the first section of the act to which this is a supplement, passed at November session eighteen hundred and six*.

CHAP. 189.

Passed Jan 7, 1812

Respondents to have all the benefits and advantages now given to complainants.

*Ch. 55.

CHAP. CXC.

An Act to make public a Road leading from Thomas Kell's Farm in Baltimore County, to David Lee's Mill, on the Little Falls of Gunpowder River. Lib. TH. No. 3, fol. 270.

Passed Jan 7, 1812

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That such part of the road formerly opened as the road from Baltimore to Belle-Air, which passes from Thomas Kell's farm to a small run or field northward of William Dimmitt's house, be and the same is hereby declared to be a public highway; Provided, the owners of the land over which an extension of said road shall pass, do open, clear out, make and extend the same, from the place above mentioned, on as straight a course as the ground will admit, to the fording place on the little falls aforesaid, at David Lee's mill, the said extension to be approved by commissioners hereby appointed to view the same.

Part of said road declared public.

Proviso

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That James Carroll, Thomas Kell and Nathaniel Baker, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to view the said road, when opened and extended as aforesaid, and should they, or a majority of them, approve of the same, they shall thereupon make out a plot of the said road as opened and approved of, and return the same to the clerk of Baltimore county court, to be recorded among the land records of said county; and the said road shall for ever thereafter be deemed a public highway of Baltimore county, and be kept in repair as other public roads in said county.

Commissioners appointed—their duties.

See 1806, ch. 92.

CHAP. CXCI.

An Act to incorporate a Company to open the navigation of Zachia Run. Lib TH. No. 3, fol. 271.

Passed Jan. 7, 1812

Supplements, 1814, ch. 121; 1816, ch. 269.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that the opening of the Zachia Run, in Charles county, from the tide water of the river Wicomico to the head of the said run, would essentially conduce to the wealth and improvement of the said county; and a number of persons have petitioned to be incorporated for the above purpose,

Preamble.

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful to open books in Port Tobacco, in Charles county, for receiving and entering subscriptions for the said undertaking, under the management of Samuel Chapman, John Campbell, Francis Diggs, Jesse Jameson, Lawrence Posey, Joseph Boardman, (of Leonard,) Smith Hawkins, Francis Hawkins, Samuel Hawkins, William B. Smoot, (of Charles.) Joseph

Books may be opened for subscriptions—stockholders incorporated.