How a certain road to be kept in repair.

Certain roads vacated.

CHAP. XLVIII.

An Act making public a certain Road in Harford County, and vacating the Roads therein mentioned. Lib. TH. No. 3, fol. 381.

WHEREAS sundry inhabitants of Harford county, by their petition to this general assembly, have prayed that the road leading from John Forwood's blacksmith shop, to Mrs. Henrietta Wheeler's as now opened and in use, be made a public highway, and that the road leading from the Peach Bottom road near the bridge on Deer Creek, to the aforesaid road leading from John Forwood's smithshop, be vacated and closed up, as also the road leading from a ford on Deer Creek, below and near to Clement Green's mill, until its intersection with the road leading from William Pyle's saw mill, to and through the farm of Mrs. Henrietta Wheeler, be vacated and closed up, they being an expense to the county, and not of public utility; therefore,

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the road leading from John Forwood's blacksmith-shop to Mrs. Henrietta Wheeler's as now opened and in use, shall for ever hereafter be deemed a public highway, and that the same shall be kept in repair as other public roads in said county are.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the road leading from the Peach Bottom road near the bridge on Deer Creek, until its intersection with the road leading from John Forwood's blacksmith shop to Mrs. Henrietta Wheeler's, be vacated and closed up, as also the road leading from the ford on Deer Creek, below and near to the mill of Clement Green, until its intersection with the road leading from William Pyle's saw-mill, to and through the farm of Henrietta Wheeler, shall be vacated and closed up, any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAP. XLIX.

Passed Dec. 7.

Preamble.

Road declared public.

An Act to establish a public Road in Prince-George's County. Lib. TH. No. 3, fol. 382

WHEREAS sundry inhabitants of Prince-George's county, by their petition to this general assembly have represented, that there has been a private road for a great number of years leading from a bounded stone standing at the main road in Basil Duckett's plantation, and thence by Belt Brasher's, to intersect the main road leading from Bladensburgh by Magruder's tavern to Annapolis, at a place known by the name of Lanham's blacksmith shop, and as the establishing the same as a public road would greatly promote the convenience of the inhabitants residing near said road, and be of public utility, they have prayed that the same may be made a public road, and kept up and repaired under the same regulations as other public roads in said county; which appearing to this general assembly reasonable, therefore,

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the road in Prince-George's county leading as aforesaid from a bounded stone standing at the main road in Basil Duckett's plantation, and thence by Belt Brasher's to intersect the main road leading from Bladensburgh by Magruder's tavern to Annapolis, at a place known by the name of Lanham's blacksmith shop, as now opened and used, be and the same is hereby declared, deemed and taken to be, a public road for ever, and shall hereafter be kept up
