CHAP. CLXXI.

Passed Dec 29, † 1811, ch. 130,

Preamble

Freeholders to be summoned to as-ertain damages sustained.

A Supplement to an act†, entitled, An act to extend M<sup>c</sup>Elderry-Street, in the Eastern Precincts of Baltimore. Lib. TH. No. 3, fol. 507.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that by the act to which this is a supplement, the damages sustained by reason of extending said street were to be assessed and levied on the petitioners only, which would operate partially, and is contrary to the provisions always made in such cases, which are that all persons benefitted shall pay their proportion of the damages incurred; therefore,

1. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the sheriff of Baltimore county, after having given at least ten days notice in one or more of the newspapers of the city of Baltimore, shall at any time before the first day of May next, summon twelve freeholders, inhabitants of the said precincts, not interested in the premises, who being first sworn to assess and value what damages shall be sustained by any person or persons by reason of extending M<sup>c</sup>Elderry-street under the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, (taking advantages and disadvantages into consideration,) shall proceed to assess and value what damages have been sustained by any person or persons whomsoever by extending said street, and shall also declare what sum of money each individual benefitted thereby shall respectively contribute and pay towards compensating the person or persons injured by extending said street; and the names of the persons, and the sums of money which they shall respectively be obliged to pay, and the time in which they shall pay the same, shall be returned, under their hands and seals, to the clerk of Baltimore county court, to be filed and kept in his office; and the persons benefitted by extending the said street, and assessed as aforesaid, shall respectively pay the sum or sums of money so charged and assessed to him, her or them, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent. from the time limited for the payment thereof.

Sums assessed to be a lien on property benefitted.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the sums of money assessed and charged to each individual benefitted by extending the aforesaid street, shall be a lien upon and bind all the property so benefitted to the full amount thereof.
