Justices to write probats when required.

31. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall be the duty of all and every justice of the peace to write and prepare all probats, affidavits, supersedeas, and other instruments to be executed by them in virtue of this law, when required, except in cases of acknowledgment of deeds.

And take an oath before they act.

32. AND BE IT ENACTED, That every justice of the peace, or associate justice, before he acts as such, shall take an oath, that he will not, directly or indirectly, receive any greater fee or reward for any thing in his office as justice of the peace than what is allowed by this act; and if any associate justice, or justice of the peace, by colour of his office, shall receive any fee or reward for any service not specified in this act, or if any associate justice, or justice of the peace, shall receive any greater fee or reward for any service mentioned in this act than is hereby allowed, he shall forfeit one hundred dollars for every such offence, but such justice shall not be liable to prosecution after twelve months from the time of the offence committed.

Proceedings relative to causes to be returned to courts constituted by this act.

33. AND BE IT ENACTED. That all causes, pleas, process and proceedings, relative to any cause, civil or criminal, which shall be returnable to, or depending before, the several county courts of this state, when this act shall commence, shall be returned to the several county courts constituted by this act, at the times herein before appointed for the holding of each court, and shall be heard, tried and determined therein, in the same manner as if no change had been made in the said courts; and all writs issuing out of any of the said county courts shall be tested in the name of the chief justice, and in case of his death, resignation or disqualification, before a new appointment, in the name of the associate justice first named in the commission, and all writs shall be returnable on the days appointed by this act.
