Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that the running at large of hogs in Emmitsburgh is injurious to the inhabitants of said town; therefore,

Hogs found going at large in Town may be killed or impounded.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first Monday in March next, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons whatsoever to raise or keep any hogs within said town, except in enclosures, or to suffer any hogs to go and remain at large therein; and if any hogs, the property of the inhabitants of Emmitsburgh, shall be found going and remaining at large within said town, it shall and may be lawful for any person or persons to kill or impound the same, and if impounded, such persons shall immediately give notice, by advertisements set up at the most public places in said town, describing the hogs so impounded, and if the owner or owners shall not, within five days thereafter, prove his or their property therein, and make compensation for the injury, if any, which may have been sustained by any inhabitant of said town, to be ascertained by any two disinterested persons, inhabitants as aforesaid, and shall not pay for every such hog the sum of two shillings for every day it shall have been so impounded, it may be lawful for the person or persons so impounding as aforesaid to sell or kill the same for his or their benefit.

General issue may be plead.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if any person or persons shall be sued and impleaded for killing, destroying and selling, any such hog as aforesaid, the defendant or defendants may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence.

CHAP. XLV.

Passed Jan. 8, 1803
1798, ch. 82.

*An Act supplementary to the act,* entitled, An act appointing Commissioners to contract for and purchase the Lands commonly called The Choptank Indian Lands, in Dorchester County, and for appropriating the same to the use of the State, and to repeal the Act of Assembly therein mentioned.* Lib. JG. No. 4, fol. 251.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by the said original act, the agent of the state was authorised and empowered to execute and acknowledge, in due form of law, deeds of bargain and sale to the respective purchasers of the several lots of Indian land which should be sold by him, and the office of agent being discontinued, it is necessary to authorise some other person to make such conveyances: therefore,

Chancellor authorised to execute certain duties vested in state's agent.

2. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the chancellor of this state shall be and is hereby authorised and empowered to execute all and singular the powers and authorities by the said original act delegated to, and vested in, the state's agent, relative to the making and acknowledging deeds of conveyance to the purchasers of any part of the said Indian lands, and to persons lawfully claiming under such purchasers, or any of them; and any conveyances made by the said chancellor, in virtue of this act, shall
