An ACT for the relief of Robert Long. PR.

C H A P. XXVI.

An ACT to invest the United States in congress assembled, with a power to levy, for the use of the United States, certain duties on imported foreign goods, wares and merchandises, as a fund for the payment of the debt contracted by congress during the late war.

Preamble.

WHEREAS congress, by a resolution dated the eighteenth of April, seventeen hundred and eighty-three, have recommended to the several states to pass laws, investing the United States in congress assembled with a power to levy certain duties on imported foreign goods, wares and merchandise, as a fund for the payment of the debt contracted by congress during the late war; and the measure appearing to this general assembly to be absolutely necessary: Therefore,

Congress may levy duties, &c.

II. Be it enacted, by the general assembly of Maryland, That the United States in congress assembled be, and they are hereby invested with a power to levy the following duties on the following enumerated articles, imported into this state from any foreign port, island or plantation, to wit: Upon all rum of Jamaica proof, per gallon, four ninetieths of a dollar; upon all other spirituous liquors, per gallon, three ninetieths of a dollar; upon Madeira wine, per gallon, twelve ninetieths of a dollar; upon all other wines, per gallon, six ninetieths of a dollar; upon common bohea tea, per pound, six ninetieths of a dollar; upon all other teas, per pound, twenty-four ninetieths of a dollar; upon pepper, per pound, three ninetieths of a dollar; upon brown sugar, per pound, half a ninetieth of a dollar; upon loaf sugar, per pound, two ninetieths of a dollar; upon all other sugars, per pound, one ninetieth of a dollar; upon molasses, per gallon, one ninetieth of a dollar; upon cocoa and coffee, per pound, one ninetieth of a dollar; and upon all other goods, wares and merchandise, of foreign growth or manufacture, imported into this state from any foreign port, island or plantation, a duty of five per cent. ad valorem, at the time and place of importation.

Governor and council to appoint collectors, &c.

III. And be it enacted, That the governor and council are hereby authorized to appoint proper persons to collect the duties aforesaid, at such convenient places within this state as congress shall direct, provided that the general assembly, at their next session that shall happen thereafter, may confirm such appointments,
