XXIII. And be it further enacted, That all sheriffs, bailiffs, constables, and all other officers and ministers of justice, shall be aiding and assisting to the said trustees for the poor in each of the said counties, and to all such officers as shall be employed by them, as by this act is directed, in the execution and performance of the said service.

Officers to be aiding and assisting to the trustees, &c.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any person or persons shall, at any time or times, be sued or prosecuted for any matter or thing by him or them done and executed in pursuance and execution of this act, or of any matter or thing in this act contained, such person or persons shall and may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence for his or their defence; and if, upon trial, a verdict shall pass for the defendant or defendants, or if the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, or discontinue his or their suit, then such defendant or defendants shall have and recover treble costs to him or them awarded against such plaintiff or plaintiffs; and if the plaintiff or plaintiffs is or are unable to satisfy the same, then it shall be paid and satisfied by the attorney who brought such suit, unless the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall give security for the costs, to be approved of by the court in which such suit is brought.

Persons sued
may plead the general issue,
