

My Lady's manor, and Monocacy manor, to be sold for certificates granted to the army. November, 1781, ch. 31.

Unappropriated property to the amount of £. 1000 to be sold for money. April, 1782, ch. 3.

Cunningham's lots in Port-Tobacco, Russell's lots in Nottingham and Upper-Marlborough, Dulany's ground-rents in Frederick-town, Somerville's and Key's property, Dunlaps lots in George-town, Hamilton's property, Buchanan's and Brown's lots in Bladensburg and Charles-town, and Alexander's land in Cæcil, to be sold for specie. April, 1782, ch. 58.

The reserves in St. Mary's, Charles, Baltimore, Harford, and on Monocacy manor, and Gunpowder, North-east and Elk manors, the parts of the manors of St. Mary's, Charles, Kent and Worcester, the property of Principio company, the lands of Glasford in Frederick and Washington, the lands of Christie in Harford, of Wardrop, Richardson and French, not before appropriated, the lands in Frederick of Dulany and Addison, and the other red money property not yet sold, the public land on Whetstone-point, the land of Fottrell's heirs, John Buchanan and Gentzbergers, in Washington, and of Dunlaps, Cunningham, Finlay, Tipple, in Montgomery; all these to be sold for specie, to enable congress to pay the southern army. April, 1782, ch. 59.

Commissioners to certify claims against confiscated property to the treasurer, who is to reserve money or bonds to satisfy them. May, 1781, ch. 37.

Property taken as confiscated, must be claimed within a limited time; and the commissioners are enabled to bring trover or replevin, or to compromise with the holders of confiscated property. April, 1782, ch. 60.

A provision made for the discovery of confiscated property. 1784, ch. 81.

CONGRESS.

Our delegates to be annually appointed; their qualifications and continuance in office. Const. 27.

To swear that they will not hold any other office. Const. 38.

Punishable if they do. Const. 39.

Restricted by a temporary law from using trade. July, 1779, ch. 2.

A time fixed for appointing them. 1784, ch. 80.

Congress invested conditionally with certain duties. April, 1782, ch. 48.

Another act to the same effect. April, 1783, ch. 26.

A supplement to the last act. 1784, ch. 77.

Congress invested conditionally with certain powers respecting commerce. 1784, ch. 67.

CONOCOCHIEGUE MANOR.

Its proprietor relieved. April, 1782, ch. 24.

CONSTABLES.

Their fees established. October, 1780, ch. 17.

Fines on them regulated. April, 1782, ch. 40.

CONSTITUTION.

Agreed to. November 8, 1776.

How alterable. Const. 59.

CONTRACTS.

For gold and silver to be enforced. June, 1780, ch. 28.

Contracts, for whatever kind of money, shall hereafter be executed. October, 1780, ch. 5, sec. 10.

CONVEYANCES.

Provisions respecting acknowledgment and enrollment. November, 1766, ch. 14.

Certain defective acknowledgments before Thomas Prather. November, 1773, ch. 3.

The six months allowed for recording declared to be calendar. November, 1779, ch. 10.

CONVENTION.

Its resolves declared in force. Decl. 41.

CONVICTS.

The act of 1751, ch. 11, respecting the evidence of convicts, continued for seven years, by October, 1780, ch. 12, November, 1765, ch. 19.

A supplement to the act for preventing the concealing of imported convicts. 1769, ch. 22.

COSTS.

In criminal cases to be paid according to the event of the trial. November, 1781, ch. 11.

COUNCIL OF SAFETY.

See February, 1777, ch. 24.

COUNTY CLERKS.

The act of 1748, ch. 7, respecting their power of removing papers, &c. continued for seven years by October, 1780, ch. 12, November, 1765, ch. 16.

To bring the four last dockets. September, 1770, ch. 10.

Allowed for certain services. October, 1780, ch. 23.

To hold their offices during good behaviour. Const. 40.

COUNTY COURTS.

Empowered to settle with former inspectors of tobacco. 1771, ch. 37.

Their jurisdiction increased. June, 1773, ch. 1.

Shall appoint their own clerks. Const. 47.

June terms abolished. 1774, ch. 5.

Courts enabled to lay a particular levy. February, 1777, ch. 1.

Empowered to call witnesses from other counties, and thither to issue executions. October, 1777, ch. 12.

The terms on the eastern shore changed. October, 1778, ch. 21, sec. 16.

Courts empowered to assess for their county charges. October, 1780, ch. 26.

The terms changed in several counties. 1784, ch. 54.

COURTS.

Opened generally by an act reciting most that had been done by the several conventions respecting proceedings in courts: February, 1777, ch. 15.

Enabled to continue causes at discretion. February, 1777, ch. 15, sec. 6.

D

DEBTS, PRIVATE.

A GENERAL act for the relief of debtors. 1774, ch. 28.

A mode for the speedy recovery of small debts. June, 1777, ch. 12.

A suspension of suits. October, 1780, ch. 5, sec. 15.

Another act for the same purpose. April, 1782, ch. 55.

Bills, bonds and notes, given for money in consideration of tobacco paid for the tax, shall be good for no more than the value of the tobacco. October, 1780, ch. 21.

DEBTS, PUBLIC.

A mode for the speedy recovery of public debts. March, 1778, ch. 9.

A mode of suing public bonds. October, 1778, ch. 20.

Public debts to be adjusted by a scale. May, 1781, ch. 17.

Another act to that effect. May, 1781, ch. 36.

A mode for adjusting the debts due from traitors, whose property has been confiscated. November, 1782, ch. 24.

This state invites its citizens, creditors of congress, to accept it for their debtor. November, 1782, ch. 25.

Funds provided for paying in six years. 1784, ch. 55.

A time limited for bringing in claims. 1784, ch. 65.

DECLARATION OF RIGHTS.

Assented to. November, 3, 1776.

How to be altered. Const. 59.