

Done at the City of Annapolis on the twenty-ninth day of November, in the year of our Lord, One thousand eight-hundred and Ninety-two, and of the Independence of the United States the one-hundred and Seventeenth

Strank Brown

By the Governor;

E. W. Seconypte
Secretary of State

Which was read.

On Motion by Mr. Goodwin

The Electors then proceeded to ballot for President of the United States for the term beginning from and after the third day of March 1893, in conformity with the requirements of the Constitution and Laws.

Mr. Bowie nominated Grover Cleveland of the State of New York for President of the United States for said term.

The President appointed as tellers Messrs. Bowie and Baker

The ballots of the Electors were deposited in a ballot-box which had been delivered to Messrs. Bowie and Baker who on counting the ballots reported that eight votes had been cast and that all of them were for Grover Cleveland of the State of New York for President of the United States, and that no other person had been voted for.

Whereupon, - It was declared by the Chair that Grover Cleveland of the State of New York had received eight votes for President of the United States, from and after the third day of March next ensuing, being the whole number of votes to which the State of Maryland is entitled.

On Motion by Mr. Hannibal

The Electors proceeded to ballot for Vice-President of the United States for the ensuing term.
