CHAPTER 431.

AN ACT to enable Joseph G. Harrison, collector of State and county taxes for the First Collection District of Worcester County, Maryland, for the year 1898, to enforce the payment of taxes not heretofore collected by him.

Enforcing payment of back taxes.

WHEREAS, Joseph G. Harrison was duly appointed by the County Commissioners of Worcester County, Maryland, collector of both State and county taxes which were levied upon the taxable property of the First Collection District of said Worcester County in the year 1898, and as such collector became duly qualified by executing his approved bond; and Extending time to complete collections.

WHEREAS, A portion of said taxes remain uncollected and said collector will be unable to collect the same unless his time for the collection of said taxes be extended by law, and it is desirable to extend said time in order that he may complete the collection of said State and county taxes so as aforesaid remaining uncollected.

Limiting time for collection.

SECTION I. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all taxes heretofore levied by the County Commissioners of Worcester County for the said year 1898 on the taxable property in the First Collection District of Worcester County and not yet collected by said Joseph G. Harrison, may be collected within one year from and after the passage of this Act.

Collection of uncollected taxes.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Joseph G. Harrison, collector as aforesaid, to proceed with the collection of all uncollected taxes as aforesaid and for the purpose aforesaid his time is hereby extended for the collection of taxes as aforesaid for one year from and after the passage of this Act.
