

said county a license permitting the person therein named and sufficiently described for the purposes of identification to shoot said game in said county for the period of one year from the day on which said license was issued, and such license shall not be transferrable. The person named therein, or the party procuring such license, shall pay to the said Clerk thereof the sum of ten dollars per year, which amount shall be paid by said Clerk to the Board of County Commissioners and by them credited to the fund for the payment of the bounties prescribed in Sections 18 and 19 of the Acts of 1902, Chapter 276; and shall, in addition, pay to the Clerk a fee of fifty cents as his compensation for the issuing of such license, the form for which shall be appointed by the State game warden and furnished by said Clerk; and any non-resident convicted before a justice of the peace of said county or other court of competent jurisdiction for gunning therein without having complied with the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined ten dollars for each and every such offense, which fine shall be payable two-thirds to the County Commissioners of Allegany County, to be by them credited to the fund for the payment of bounties heretofore set forth in this Act, and one-third to the informer, except as provided in Section 8 of Chapter 293 of the Acts of 1896; on failure to pay said fine and costs, the offender shall be committed to the county jail for the term of ten days for each offense, or until fine and costs are paid.

Penalty for failure to pay fine and costs.

99D. It shall be unlawful within said county at any time to permit dogs to run at large, and any birds or mammals killed, maimed or injured by dogs so running at large in violation of this section shall be deemed and considered to have been killed or injured by the owners of said dogs, who shall, in the event of their conviction before any magistrate of said county of the offense herein set out, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be fined five dollars for each bird or mammal so maimed, injured or killed, and in default shall be sentenced to ten days in jail, or until said fine and costs are paid. Dogs making their homes with or at the residence or tenement of any residents of this county shall be considered as the property of said resident or tenant, and as such subject to the provisions of this section.

Owners of dogs liable.

16. Any person violating any of the sections of Chapter 276 of the Acts of 1902, or the amendments thereto, and being convicted thereof before any justice of the peace of said county or court of competent jurisdiction, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall forfeit the fines in this Act and its Deemed guilty of of misdemeanor.