

hogs, or any kind of cattle, belonging to any other person or persons, or cause the same to be done, shall make good all such damages sustained thereby to the owner or owners thereof, as shall be awarded by two respectable disinterested men of the vicinity, under their oath or affirmation, who may be summoned to view the same, and in case of their disagreement, it shall be lawful for the party or parties aggrieved, to cause a third man to be summoned, who shall qualify as above required, and the decision of any two of them shall be final, the said damages to be recovered in the same manner as is, or, shall be prescribed for the recovery of small debts.

CHAP. 48.

Penalty

Proceeding: directed

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That each freeholder, who shall be called on to value and assess the damages, shall be allowed for his services, fifty cents per day; the fees of officers for duties performed under this act, shall be the same as allowed by law, for duties of the like in cases of debt.

Compensation to freeholders

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That all laws or parts of laws, inconsistent with or repugnant to the provisions of this act, so far as the same relates to Kent county, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Repeal

CHAPTER 48.

An act to incorporate the town of Franklin in Baltimore county.

Passed Feb. 12, 1834

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the citizens of the town of Franklin, in Baltimore county, shall be and they are hereby constituted and made a body corporate, by the name of the Commissioners of the town of Franklin, with all the privileges of a body corporate, and to have a common seal and perpetual succession.

Incorporation granted

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the free male white citizens of the town of Franklin, aforesaid, of the age of twenty-one years, and upwards, and who have resided in the said place, for, and during the space of six months, next preceding the election, shall on the first Monday in May next, at the house, now known as the Franklin House Hotel, and on the first Monday in June, in each and every

Election of five commissioners