

CHAP. 71.

Bond required

the superintendance of said trustees, the survivors or survivor of them, and shall also execute and deliver his bond to the state of Maryland for double the value of said real and personal property, with sufficient security to be approved by said Treasurer, conditioned for the delivery of said property to the persons who shall become entitled thereto, conformably to the distribution which shall be made thereof by chance or lot under the superintendance aforesaid.

Valuation directed

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That three commissioners shall be appointed by the Treasurer to value said property before it is disposed of, and that they make return of the amount thereof to the aforesaid Treasurer, and that the party petitioning shall pay the usual expenses allowed to appraisers valuing the same, and that upon said appraisal the tax of five per centum, as provided for in the first section, shall be paid.

Limitation

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That this act shall continue in force for one year and no longer.

Not to effect lotteries

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be construed to interfere with any contract for lotteries now in existence nor with any law relating to such lotteries.

CHAPTER 70.

Passed Feb. 11, 1834. A supplement to an act entitled, an act relating to Parkin street, in the city of Baltimore.

Partial repeal

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the act of December session of the year eighteen hundred and sixteen, chapter two hundred and eighteen, and the act of December session of the year eighteen hundred and seventeen, chapter one hundred and forty-eight, shall be deemed to be repealed, as to so much of Parkin street now not opened, as is to run from Columbia street to Washington Avenue, in the city of Baltimore, and that the same shall remain forever closed.

CHAPTER 71.

Passed Feb. 16, 1834

An act to appoint commissioners for certain purposes.

Appointment

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John Folk, David Beall and Bene S. Pigman, of Allegany