

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take In force effect from and after the date of its passage.

Approved April 11th, 1874.

---

CHAPTER 416.

AN ACT to incorporate the Citizens' Bank of Annapolis.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William H. Tuck, James Andrews, William H. Gorman, Michael Bannon, Levin Woolford, be and they are hereby appointed Commissioners appointed. Commissioners, under the direction of a majority of whom subscription may be received to the capital stock or the Citizens' Bank of Annapolis, hereby incorporated, and they or a majority of them shall cause books to be opened at such times in the City of Annapolis, and upon such notice as they or a majority of them shall direct, for the purpose of receiving subscriptions to the capital stock of said bank.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the capital stock of said bank shall be fifty thousand dollars, divided Capital stock into five thousand shares of ten dollars each; and that as soon as two thousand shares of said stock shall be subscribed for, and ten thousand dollars therein actually paid in, the owners of said stock, their successors and assigns, be and they are hereby created, made and declared a corporation by the name and style of the Citizens Bank of Annapolis, and by that name may make contracts, sue and be Incorporated. sued, complain and defend in any court of law or equity, or in any place whatsoever, and to make and use a common seal, and the same to break, alter and renew at pleasure; and to make and enforce any by-laws and regulations, not being contrary to Make by-laws and regulations law or the provisions of this act, for the election of directors, the management of its property, the regulation of its affairs, and for the transfer of its stock; by discounting notes, bills and other evidence of