

CHAP. 261.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That so much of the tenth section of the said original act, and so much also of the third section of its said supplement, as exempts from duty any lands or tenements, goods or chattels, vessels or other effects, whatsoever, for any other cause than that they belong to the state, or the United States, or are distrained for rent, or sold in virtue of any writ of execution issued out of any court of this state, or of the United States, or under any decree in chancery, be and the same are hereby repealed,

Sec. 4. And it be enacted, That if any of the persons appointed by the governor and council, as auctioneer in the city of Baltimore, shall be desirous of pursuing his business as an auctioneer, only of furniture and wearing apparel, lands, lots of ground, and tenements, servants, and slaves, carriages and horses, books, stationary, maps and prints, cut goods, jewelry, watches, tin ware, guns, pistols, lamps, candlesticks and mechanics tools, he shall be authorised so to do at all times upon his first entering into recognizance as is provided in the original act and supplement, and in like manner with two sufficient sureties in the sum of five thousand dollars, and upon his also first paying to the treasurer of the western shore, the sum of four hundred and fifty dollars as a license fee.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That in case of the death of any auctioneer before the time limited in his license is expired, his copartner or copartners, if he has any or his personal representative or representatives, as the case may be, shall or may continue to act under said license for the unexpired time of said license.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons, not appointed and authorised as in the manner by the said original act, and its supplement is directed nor in pursuance of a distress for rent, nor in virtue of any writ or decree as aforesaid, of the state or of the United States, shall sell or attempt to sell any lands or tenements, goods or chattels, vessels or other effects whatsoever, by way of public auction, or vendue, in the city of Baltimore, he, she or they, shall be considered guilty of a misdemeanor, and be dealt with in every respect as by the third section of the said original act is provided.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the constables and other police officers of, and in the city of Baltimore, to report to the next grand jury thereafter any violation of this, or the said original act, or any of its supplements aforesaid, which by any means shall come to their knowledge.

Repeal of clauses.

License fee.

Case of death.

Case of misdemeanor.

Constables, &amp;c. to report.