

Sec 2. And be it enacted, That the execution may on application of any party to the court, rendering such judgment or decree, be issued by such court for enforcing the payment or satisfaction thereof, notwithstanding the attachment aforesaid; Provided, That the monies payable under said judgment or decree, be in the writ of execution aforesaid, required to be brought into the court aforesaid, to be by such court preserved and deposited or invested in stocks, as it may direct, to abide the event of such proceeding of attachment aforesaid.

CHAP. 322.

Execution notwithstanding may issue.

Money to be brought into court await decision.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That in all cases of such attachment, the garnishee shall not be liable for any costs, but the costs which would be chargeable to him, shall be charged to and paid by the plaintiff or plaintiffs in such attachment.

Plaintiffs liable for costs.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the provisions of the seventh section of the act, to which this is a supplement, be and the same are hereby declared to extend to cases where the defendant or defendants shall be residents of this state, at the time of issuing the attachment in said section provided for, or at any time afterwards.

Sec. 7. of original act, extended.

CHAPTER 322.

A supplement to an act, entitled, An act to reduce into one, the several acts of assembly respecting Elections, and to regulate such Elections.

Passed Mar 14, 1832

WHEREAS, no appointment of representatives among the states has been made under the last census, and the number of electors of president and vice president of the United States, to which Maryland may be entitled remains unsettled; And whereas, the ratio of representation most likely to be adopted will give to Maryland ten electors—Therefore,

Preamble.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That for the purpose of choosing electors of president and vice president at the ensuing election, in the event of this state on the new appointment being entitled to but ten electors, the state shall be divided into four districts in manner following, viz:—Saint Mary's, Charles, Calvert, Anne Arundel, Prince George's, Montgomery, Frederick, Washington, and Allegany counties, with the city of Annapolis, shall constitute the first district, and elect from among the persons resident in said district four electors; the city of

In certain event.

Four districts.

First district.