

county, situate on Herring Bay, from which lot they have at great expence extended a wharf, which it is CHAP. 270. important should be kept up; and whereas, said persons are desirous of being secured in the enjoyment of said wharf, and maintaining the same in repair, and so improving it at their discretion that it may accommodate the steamboat Patuxent and other vessels under their direction frequenting the said waters:—Therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Authorised to hold
That said Weems, Watchman and Bratt, and Harwood, and their heirs and assigns, be and they are hereby authorised and declared to be entitled to hold, and keep up and use for mooring thereat, vessels owned by them or under their contract as aforesaid, and in other ways; and to improve with any building or buildings or otherwise the said wharf, as they are or may be entitled to have, use and enjoy the said lot of ground; and that they may at any time or times hereafter extend said wharf further into the said waters, and to widen the same within the limits of said lot, so however, that the navigation of said waters be not by such extending or widening impeded or injured.

CHAPTER 270.

A supplement to the act, entitled, an act regulating the Inspection of Green Hides and Skins, in the City of Baltimore, passed December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-one, chapter two hundred and forty-five. Passed Mar 2 5, 1836

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland. That it shall be the duty of the inspectors of green hides and skins, in the city of Baltimore, to keep a regular minute of the damage of each and every hide and skin slaughtered by the several butchers of the city of Baltimore, and so report the same monthly to an agent or collector to be appointed by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, to whom he shall give bond with security. Estimate of damages