WHEREAS, the establishment of Light Houses at Hooper's Island, near the straights, in Dorchester county, and at Sharp's Island, in Talbot county, and the placing of Buoys in the Great Choptank River, near Cambridge, on the shoals commonly called the Sugar Loaf and Jamaica Shoals, have long been objects of desire to all concerned in the trade and navigation of the Chesapeake Bay; and whereas, it is believed that the loss of a large amount of property might have been avoided and many valuable lives saved to the country, by the timely erection of the lights desired on those Islands, and the placing of Buoys as above mentioned; and whereas, the necessary enactments for the cession of territorial jurisdiction and the condemnation of sites, have been passed by the Legislature of this State,—Therefore;
