

of nominations made by more than one convention or primary election, and duly certified as aforesaid, the officers by whom the ballot is to be prepared, or a majority of them, shall determine which nominees are justly entitled to the party name, and the word "Independent" shall precede the party name of the other nominee. All candidates for office shall, as far as possible, be placed in one column; but when the names to be printed upon the ticket are over thirty, then another column shall be added in which names shall be printed, and when two or more columns are used the same number of names shall, as far as possible, be printed in each column. Any question to be submitted to the popular vote shall be printed in a separate column, to follow immediately the names of the candidates.

If at any election there be a question to be submitted to the popular vote, the said question shall be placed upon said ballot in the form following:

"For Proposition," "Against Proposition," and said respective questions shall be placed in a column, as hereinbefore Questions for popular vote. mentioned, so that the same shall form a parallelogram or space where the voter may clearly indicate, in the way hereinafter pointed out, whether he shall wish to cast his ballot for or against the proposition or propositions submitted.

270TT. Said ballots shall be printed upon plain white printing paper, of ordinary book weight, in black ink, and in clear, legible type; and in printing, the names of the candidates respectively shall be of uniform size, style and appearance throughout the ballots, and the type used in printing the names of the parties which said candidates respectively represent shall be uniform in size, style and appearance throughout the ballot, such uniformity of type and printing to be fixed and determined by the Board of Supervisors of Elections of said city. Uniform size of type and ballots.

On the back and outside shall be printed the words "Official Ballot For," followed by the designation of the polling place for which it is prepared, the date of the election, and a facsimile of the signature of the President of the Board of Supervisors of Elections, by whom the ballot has been prepared.

Said ballot shall be printed on the same leaf, with a detachable stub or coupon one inch high and three inches wide, above the upper right hand corner of the ballot, and binding on the upper edge thereof, but separated therefrom by a line Coupons on ballots.