

BATTERY A, LIGHT ARTILLERY [2nd], "JUNIOR ARTILLERY."

BATTERY A (second), Maryland Light Artillery, otherwise known as the Junior Artillery, was organized at Baltimore, Md., in July 1863, for six months, under the President's proclamation of June 15, 1863, calling for six months' men.

The duties this battery performed were strictly of a local character especially engaged in the defenses of Baltimore, Md.

It was mustered out of service January 19, 1864, by reason of expiration of term of service.