

- Act of 1777, c. 5, 60-61; joint, to original members of State Court of Appeals, 63; joint, to members of Court of Appeals, 1801, 79; last use of joint commission to Court of Appeals, 79; date of, to determine seniority, 97; to judges elected under Const. of 1851, 153.
- COMMISSARY, jurisdiction of Commissary General over administration of decedents' estates, 5; deputy for each county, 5; office abolished, 58.
- CONSTABLE, Albert, 158.
- CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTIONS OF 1776, first meeting, Aug. 14, 1776, 59; separation of legislative, executive and judicial powers, 59; tenure of judicial office during good behavior, 59; Judges Mackall, Wright and Murray, members of, 67; Chief Judge Jeremiah Townley Chase a member of, 100; of 1851, demands for calling, 147, 148; sentiment for and against elective judges, 148; of 1864, result of Civil War, 166; Chambers and Miller, delegates, 167; proceedings, 167-171; of 1867, result of Civil War, 166; demand for, 173-174; proceedings of, 174-176.
- CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS, CONSTITUTION OF 1776 and amendments, Declaration of Rights: Art. 6, separation of powers, 59; Art. 30, tenure of judicial offices, judges to hold one office only, 59, 96n. CONSTITUTION: Art. 40, tenure of judicial office, 60; Art. 48, appointment of judges, 60, 147; Art. 56, Court of Appeals, Ct. of Chancery, Court of Admiralty, General Ct., 59-60; Art. 59, amendments, 95; Art. 61, nomination and commissioning of judges, 60; Amendment of 1805 (Act, 1804, c. 55), abolishing General Ct. and establishing circuit system, 95-97; Amendment of 1836, abolition of council and appointment of judges, 147. CONSTITUTION OF 1851, judges elective, 149-150; number of judges and districts, 150; trial court circuits, 150; terms of office of judges, age limit, 151; clerk of court, 151; opinions to be in writing, 151; publication of reports, 151; office of Chancellor and Chancery Ct. abolished, 153; office of state reporter created, 157. CONSTITUTION OF 1864, five judges of Ct. of Appeals, 170; requirement of one year's residence, 170; five judicial districts, 170; existing judges of Ct. of Appeals retained, 170; terms of Court, 170; Annapolis place of sessions, 170; salaries of judges of Ct. of Appeals, 170; clerks—term and appointment, 170; judges of Ct. of Appeals not to do trial work, 170-171; thirteen judicial circuits, each with one judge, 171. CONSTITUTION OF 1867, eight judicial circuits, 176; Annapolis place of sessions, 176; Chief Judges of circuits of Ct. of Appeals, 176; Chief Judge and two associates for each county circuit, 176; member of Ct. of Appeals from Baltimore City, 176; length of sessions, 176; quorum, four judges, 176; clerk elective, 176; terms in April and October, 176.
- CONTINUANCE, cases under advisement continued to next term, 41; by consent, easy and frequent, early 19th century, 133-134; by taking under advisement prevented, 1864, 168.
- COOKE, William, 47, 48, 65, 66, 79, 85, 154.
- COSTS, Court of Appeals to award above and below, 1785, 76.
- COUNCIL. (See Governor and Council.)
- COUNTY COURTS, Justices of the Quorum for, 11; non-profes-