

A. M. (and for the purpose of this section Saturday afternoons shall not be considered legal holidays unless the whole of said Saturday may be a legal holiday), and at each of said respective sittings shall sit to hear, try and determine cases, and to perform all the duties which he is required by law to perform. The said respective justices of the peace, so selected to sit at any station-house in the City of Baltimore, shall transact no other business at such station-house except the business required of them, by the several sections of this sub-title of this article, to be by them, respectively, performed at such station-house. The attendance at any such station-house of an additional justice of the peace shall be regulated and controlled by the Board of Police Commissioners for the City of Baltimore; but the Board of Police Commissioners in regulating the attendance of an additional justice of the peace at a station-house shall not assign any justice of the peace to said station-house, under this section or section 637 of this said Article 4, other than a justice of the peace selected by the Governor to sit at a station-house in said city, as long as one of the said justices of the peace so assigned by the Governor shall be available for said purpose.

SEC. 632. Each of the said justices of the peace shall have power to hear, try and determine the case of every person who may be arrested and brought before him in the said City of Baltimore, charged with the violation of section 275 of Article 27 of the Code of Public General Laws of 1888, title "Crimes and Punishments," and to hear, try and determine the cases of all persons arrested and brought before him charged with any offense specified in sections 865 to 868, inclusive, of this said Article 4, or in sections 881 to 884, inclusive, of this said Article 4; and to hear, try and determine the cases of all persons brought before him charged with the violation of Chapter 351 of the Acts of 1898, or charged with any disturbance of the public peace; and to hear, try and determine the cases of all persons brought before him charged with assault or with assault and battery; provided that no justice of the peace shall impose any fine exceeding $100 or any term of imprisonment exceeding one year, in any case of assault, or assault and battery, and to hear, try and determine all charges of carrying concealed weapons and all violations of section 4 of this act; and to hear, try and determine all prosecutions or criminal proceedings for an act done or omitted to be done in the City of Baltimore, the doing of which act, or the omission to do which act, is or may be punishable under any act of assembly of this State or under any ordinance of the Mayor or City Council of Baltimore, by
