

such attendance, shall be sufficient authority to the clerk of the county commissioners to pay the amount specified therein.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE AND CONSTABLES.

1886, ch. 17. 1886, ch. 386. 1890, ch. 148. 1894, ch. 37.

1896, ch. 265. 1900, ch. 604. 1904, ch. 164.

1906, ch. 212. 1906, ch. 590. 1908,

ch. 534. 1910, ch. 696.

325. There shall be the following number of justices of the peace and constables for Montgomery county: for the first election district, four justices of the peace, one of whom shall reside at Laytonsville, and three constables; for the second election district, three justices of the peace, one of whom shall reside in Clarksburg and one in Hyattstown, and two constables; for the third election district, three justices of the peace, one of whom shall reside in Poolesville, and two constables; for the fourth election district, three justices of the peace, one of whom shall reside in Rockville, and three constables, one of whom shall reside in Rockville; for the fifth election district, four justices of the peace and two constables; for the sixth election district, two justices of the peace and two constables; for the seventh election district, four justices of the peace, one of whom shall be appointed from and reside in the settlement known as Chevy Chase, and two constables; for the eighth election district, three justices of the peace and two constables; for the ninth election district, three justices of the peace, one of whom shall reside in Gaithersburg, and two constables, one of whom shall reside in Gaithersburg; for the tenth election district, three justices of the peace and two constables; for the eleventh election district, three justices of the peace, one of whom shall reside in Barnesville, and two constables; for the twelfth election district, four justices of the peace and two constables, and for the thirteenth election district, three justices of the peace, one of whom shall be appointed from and reside in the town of Kensington or immediate vicinity, and two constables.

P. L. L. (1888), art. 16, sec. 128.

326. Whenever a justice of the peace for said county shall issue a summons for a defendant residing in a different election district from the said justice, he shall, upon the request of the defendant, transmit the papers in the cause to some justice in the district where the defendant resides, who shall try the same.