

pay over to the person or corporation entitled to receive the same, all money belonging to such person or corporation which may come into his hands as justice of the peace.

625. It shall be the duty of the Governor, after the appointment of the justices of the peace provided for in section 623, to select from the justices of the peace so appointed one justice of the peace who shall be known as "Presiding Justice of the Peace of the People's Court," and four other justices of the peace who shall be known as "Associate Justices of the Peace of the People's Court." Said Presiding Justice of the Peace of the People's Court shall receive from the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore a salary of $2,500 per annum, payable monthly, and each of said Associate Justices of the Peace of the People's Court shall receive from the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore a salary of $2,100 per annum, payable monthly, and said justices shall receive no other compensation or fees whatever for the performance of any duties as justices of the peace. And said justices shall sit for trial of cases on each day (except Sundays and legal holidays) from the hour of 1 o'clock P. M., at such proper place in or near the Court House in Baltimore City as may be provided by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore; and one or more of said justices, to be assigned by said Presiding Justice, shall be on duty from 9:30 o'clock A. M. until 12:30 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of issuing summons and performing any other duties, except the trial of cases. Cases may, however, be tried at any hour upon the joint consent of all the parties and of the justice.

627. Every writ, warrant, summons or other process issued by any justice of the peace shall be made returnable before the justice of the peace issuing the same, or before the Presiding Justice of the Peace of the People's Court; and any plaintiff or defendant shall have the right of removal to the Presiding Justice of the Peace of the People's Court, which said justice of the peace shall have the right to try any such case or to assign the same for trial to any other justices of the peace of the People's Court.

628. The said justices of the peace, other than the five justices of the People's Court, when called out of their offices for the purpose of taking acknowledgments and affidavits, may receive such compensation for their services, in addition to the fees prescribed by law, as the party requiring their services may allow them.

648. If any justice of the peace in Baltimore City dies, resigns or is removed, or upon the expiration of his official term, his docket and papers shall be delivered to the Clerk of the City
