

tion, and the delegation or delegations so voting for such candidate whose name is so dropped on the first ballot shall cast their vote on the second ballot of such convention for the candidate or candidates who is or are the second choice of such counties or legislative districts of Baltimore City as appears from the credentials and instructions of such delegations, and if no nomination is made by such convention for such office by a majority of the delegates upon such second ballot, the same process of dropping the last lowest candidate and transferring the votes of the delegations voting for the same to their second choice as shown by their said instructions shall be continued until a nomination for such office shall have been made and declared by such convention by a majority vote of the delegates constituting the same; provided, that when a delegation from any county or legislative district have first voted for their county's or legislative district's first choice until he has been dropped as the lowest candidate in convention and have subsequently voted for their second choice until he in turn has been dropped in the same way, they may then and only then after their first and second choices have been thus dropped, vote without instructions for any candidate they desire among the candidates still remaining before the convention; if one or more delegates to such convention shall be absent when any such ballot is taken, the member or members of such delegation present shall cast the vote of the entire delegation according to such instructions; and in case of a tie vote on any ballot the chairman of the convention shall cast the deciding vote on that ballot. All nominations to be made by such conventions shall be made in like manner and certified as required by this article. Such certificate shall also show that in the nomination of such candidates for such offices the votes of the delegations from the several counties and legislative districts of Baltimore City were cast according to the instructions which appear in the credentials of each of such delegations upon each and every ballot cast in the nomination of such candidate, and if such certificate of such nomination be not furnished, such nomination shall be held to be defective and the name of such nominee shall not appear upon the official ballot at the election to be held to fill such office. The ballots in such cases shall be cast in Baltimore City, and the several counties of the State, respectively, as provided in the preceding sections, and shall be counted and canvassed, and the result of the election announced and certified in Baltimore City and in each of the counties of the State as now provided by said Article 33 for elections held hereunder, and said primary election shall be held and conducted and determined in the
