

which such assessment has been laid, giving thirty days' notice of said sale in two of the daily newspapers published in the City of Baltimore, the first insertion of said notice to be made in said newspapers promptly after the expiration of the time limited in this article for the payment of said benefits; and the moneys so collected by the city collector shall be paid over by him to the city as other moneys are directed to be paid over.

183. In all cases in which the city collector shall sell any property on account of the non-payment of assessments made for the opening, closing, widening, grading or extension of any street, lane or alley, it shall be his duty to sell said property to the extent and subject to the same conditions which are provided by ordinance for the sale of real estate in the City of Baltimore, charged with the payment of other taxes imposed by this corporation; and in the event of the purchaser or purchasers failing forthwith to comply with the terms of said sale, the city collector shall re-sell the same at the risk of the former purchaser, giving not less than ten days' notice in two of the daily newspapers of the city aforesaid; and after collecting the benefit assessments he shall forthwith return the said commissioners' proceedings to the comptroller.

189. Whenever any obstruction shall have remained in any street, lane or alley, or part thereof so opened, for the space of sixty days after the proceedings of the said commissioners shall have been completed, it shall be the duty of said commissioners to cause the same to be removed and to draw on the register for the expense so incurred, which shall be paid by him, and the Mayor shall forthwith cause a suit for the recovery of said expenses to be instituted against the person or persons by whose default the said obstruction has been suffered to remain, and the same, when recovered, shall be paid to the register for the use of the city.

191. When the proceedings of the Commissioners for Opening Streets in any case are transferred to the city collector, the city register is authorized and required to pay all the expenses incurred by the commissioners under the said proceedings. But such expenses shall not remain unpaid more than six months after the completion of any services performed under said ordinance; and the comptroller and register are directed to pay, within six months after the services have been completed, any such expenses upon presentation of the proper vouchers or certificates from the commissioners for Opening Streets.
