All vacancies occurring on this board shall be filled by the governor in the same manner from the list of nominations furnished him or from a list of five to be furnished upon his request for additional names.

1904, art. 43, sec. 163. 1904, chs. 172, 241, sec. 2.

202. The members of this state board of examiners shall, as soon as organized and annually thereafter in the month of June, elect from their members a president and a secretary who shall be the treasurer. Three members of this board shall constitute a quorum, and special meetings of the board shall be called by the secretary upon written requests of any two members. The said board of examiners is authorized to frame such by-laws as may be necessary to govern its proceedings. The secretary shall be required to keep a record of all meetings of the board including a register of the names of all nurses duly registered under this sub-title, which shall at all reasonable times be open to public scrutiny, and the board shall cause the prosecution of all persons violating any of the provisions of this sub-title, and may incur necessary expenses in this behalf. The secretary shall receive a salary to be fixed by the board not to exceed one hundred dollars per annum, also traveling and other expenses incurred in the discharge of her official duties. The other members of the board shall receive five dollars for each day actually engaged in this service, and all legitimate and necessary expenses, said expenses and salaries shall be paid from fees received by the board under the provision of this sub-title, and no part of salaries or other expenses of the board shall be paid out of the treasury. All money received in excess of the said allowance and other expenses provided for shall be held by the treasurer for meeting the expenses of said board and the cost of annual reports of the board.

Ibid. sec. 164. 1904, chs. 172, 241, sec. 3.

203. After June 1, 1906, it shall be the duty of said board of examiners to meet not less frequently than once every year, notice of which meeting shall be given to the public press and in one nursing journal one month previous to the meeting. At this meeting it shall be their duty to examine all applicants for registration under this sub-title to determine their fitness and ability to give efficient care of the sick. Upon filing application for examination and registration, each applicant shall deposit a fee of five dollars.

Ibid. sec. 165. 1904, chs. 172, 241, sec. 4.

204. The applicant shall furnish satisfactory evidence that he or she is twenty-three years of age, is of good moral character, has received the equivalent of a high-school education and has graduated from a training school connected with a general hospital where three years of training with a systematic course of instruction is given in the
