

on therein, and as far as practicable keep the said work up to date; and he shall also perform such other services (when his time is not fully occupied in indexing and cataloguing) as shall be required of him by the said library committee.

1906, ch. 50.

16. The governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, is authorized and empowered to appoint a person as custodian of works of references, who shall hold office for a period of two years or until the appointment of a successor, who shall receive an annual salary of seven hundred and twenty dollars, payable monthly in instalments by warrant of the comptroller upon the treasurer. It shall be the duty of the custodian of works of references to attend daily at the library during such hours as may be fixed by the library committee, and shall perform such duties as may be required by said library committee and the state librarian.*
