When more than fifteen million, but less than twenty-five million, two hundred dollars. When more than twenty-five million, but less than forty million, two hundred and twenty-five dollars. When more than forty million, three hundred dollars. The Bank Commissioner shall collect the amounts named from the institution examined and pay the same to the State Treasurer, and he shall draw, on proper orders, from the State Treasury, the amounts necessary for the salaries and other expenses of his office.

1910. ch. 219, sec. 17 (p. 10).

17. The amount of two thousand five hundred dollars per annum, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of the State Treasury from any funds available toward the salaries and expenses, including traveling expenses, of the Bank Commissioner's office, if the amounts collected from the several banking institutions should not be sufficient for the said salaries and expenses.

1910. ch. 219, sec. 18 (p. 10).

18. Whenever any certified copy or copies of any records or papers filed in the office of the Bank Commissioner shall be lawfully required to be furnished by him, the Bank Commissioner shall be entitled to a fee of ten cents for each folio for making such copy or copies, and fifty cents for each certificate. All such fees are to be paid by the Bank Commissioner into the State Treasury.

19. The Bank Commissioner shall make an annual report to the Governor, covering the operations of his office, and suggesting such amendments to this Article as in his judgment may be desirable, on the tenth day of February in every year.
