135. In all suits in chancery against non-residents or against persons who may be proceeded against, as if they were non-residents, the court may order notice to be given by publication, in one or more newspapers, stating the substance and object of the bill or petition, and warning such party to appear on or before the day fixed in such order and show cause why the relief prayed should not be granted, and such notice shall be published as the court may direct, not less, however, than once a week for four successive weeks, previous to fifteen days before the day fixed by such order for the appearance of the party: provided, if a copy of the order be personally served on such party one month before the day fixed for his appearance, if he be within the limits of the United States, or three months if beyond, such service shall have the same effect as a publication. Proof of said service must be as follows: First, if served by the sheriff, his certificate thereof:
