

Fraud—Insurance Companies, by Directors or Officers of.

1904, art. 27, sec. 145. 1898, ch. 320, sec. 119B.

162. Any director or officer of any insurance company, or association, or fraternal beneficiary association, who shall receive any premium or assessment on behalf of said company, association or fraternal beneficiary association, knowing at the time of the receipt of said premium or assessment said company, association or fraternal beneficiary association to be insolvent, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment in jail for a period not exceeding six months, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Fraud—Itinerant Vendors.

Ibid. sec. 146. 1892, ch. 596, sec. 1.

163. The words "itinerant vendors," for the purposes of this sub-title, shall be construed to mean and include all persons, both principals and agents, who engage in a temporary or transient business in this State, either in one or more places in one locality, or in traveling from place to place, selling goods, wares and merchandise, and who, for the purpose of carrying on such business, hire, lease or occupy any building or structure for the exhibition and sale of such goods, wares and merchandise.

Ibid. sec. 147. 1892, ch. 596, sec. 2.

164. The provisions of this sub-title shall not apply to sales made to dealers by commercial travelers or selling agents in the usual course of business nor to bona fide sales of goods, wares and merchandise by sample for future delivery nor to hawkers on the streets or peddlers from vehicles.

Ibid. sec. 148. 1892, ch. 596, sec. 3.

165. Every itinerant vendor who shall sell or expose for sale at public or private sale any goods, wares and merchandise without State and local licenses therefor, issued as provided in this sub-title, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding sixty days, or both such fine and imprisonment.

Ibid. sec. 149. 1892, ch. 596, sec. 4.

166. All persons, both principals and agents, who shall by circular handbill, newspaper or in any other manner advertise any such sales as those referred to in the section last preceding, before proper licenses shall be issued to the vendor, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding sixty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Ibid. sec. 150. 1892, ch. 596, sec. 5.

167. It shall be the duty of every itinerant vendor, whether principal or agent, before commencing business, to take out a State license
