672. The slops and offal of the prison shall be sold or used in raising hogs or other stock for the use of the house, and none of the officers shall be allowed to raise stock of any kind within the walls. The grounds within the prison walls may be cultivated for the use of the prison, under the direction of the warden, for the purpose of keeping down unhealthy exhalations from weeds, rubbish, et cetera; the warden may keep a horse and cow for his own use, to be attended by his own servants, and fed at his own expense. The walls and houses must be whitewashed at least three times a year.

674. The cooking and refectory shall be regulated by the board of directors; but no prisoner shall receive anything but the prison allowance.

Removal of Insane Convicts.

Ibid. sec. 599. 1890, ch. 123.

675. Whenever the board of directors of the penitentiary may deem it necessary, they shall have full power to summon the State lunacy commission to examine and pass upon the mental condition of the convicts, and if the convict or convicts so examined be adjudged insane or lunatic by said commission, or a majority thereof, and removal be deemed advisable, said commission shall make complaint to the judge of the criminal court of Baltimore who shall have the power to order the removal of such insane or lunatic convict or convicts to some insane asylum within the State, and all expenses incurred in the removal and support of said insane or lunatic convict or convicts shall be borne by the State.
