

1914, ch. 800, sec. 62.

63. Definitions as used in this Article:

1. "Extra-hazardous employment" means a work or occupation described in Section 32 of this Article.

2. "Employer," except when otherwise expressly stated, means a person, partnership, association, corporation, and the legal representatives of a deceased employer, or the receiver or trustee of a person, partnership, association or corporation employing workmen in extra-hazardous employments.

3. "Employee" means a person who is engaged in an extra-hazardous employment in the service of an employer carrying on or conducting the same upon the premises or at a plant, or in the course of his employment away from the plant of his employer, and shall not include farm laborers. "Farm laborers" as used in this Article shall mean any employes who, at the time of the accident, are engaged in rendering any agricultural service, including the thrashing and harvesting of crops, or who, at the time of the accident, are engaged in service incidental to and in connection with agricultural pursuits or developments, whether the employer be the farmer or other person undertaking or contracting with the farmer to perform any such agricultural service, pursuit or development. This Article shall not apply to farm laborers, domestic servants nor to country blacksmiths, wheelwrights or similar rural employments, nor in any case where the accident occurred before this Article takes effect, nor to casual employes or any employe whose salary is in excess of two thousand dollars a year, or any employes who are employed wholly without the State.

4. "Employment" includes employment only in a trade, business or occupation carried on by the employer for pecuniary gain.

5. "Compensation" means the money allowance payable to an employe or to his dependents as provided for in this Article, and includes funeral benefits provided therein.

6. "Injury" and "personal injury" mean only accidental injuries arising out of and in the course of employment and such disease or infection as may naturally and unavoidably result therefrom.

7. "Death" when mentioned as a basis for the right to compensation means only death resulting from such injury.

8. "Average weekly wages" for the purposes of this Article shall be taken to mean the average weekly wages earned by an employe when working on full time.

9. "State Accident Fund" means the State Insurance Fund provided for in Section 16 of this article.

10. "Child" shall include a posthumous child and a child legally adopted prior to the injury of the employe.

11. "Beneficiary" means a husband, wife, child, children or dependents of an employe in whom shall vest a right to receive payment under this article.
