

set forth in full the name and address of the applicant; that he has not willfully violated any of the Insurance Laws of this State during the past year and that he will not violate any such law during the term of the license applied for, if issued; that he has not dealt unjustly with or deceived any citizen of this State or misrepresented the conditions of any insurance policy or contract; whether or not he has misappropriated or withheld from any insurance company or general agent money received or collected by him for said company or general agent under any former employment as agent, broker or solicitor, whether or not his license as insurance agent or broker has been declined or revoked in this or any other State for a violation of law; where and in what business engaged during the past year, and shall give full answers to the following questions: Do you understand that it is against the laws of this State (a) to act as agent, broker or solicitor for any company without a license from this Department, (b) to misrepresent the conditions of any policy contract, (c) to make any discrimination between citizens of this State in premiums, or in rebating any part of premiums or commissions, or to twist or attempt to twist policies by misrepresentation. Before any license or permit is issued to such agent or solicitor, the State Insurance Commissioner may make inquiry as to the accuracy of any statement made in said application, and may refuse to issue any such license if convinced that the applicant therefor has willfully violated any of the insurance laws of this State. Provided that any person deeming himself aggrieved by any such refusal by the Insurance Commissioner to grant any such license as aforesaid, shall have the right to appeal to the Superior Court of Baltimore City for a writ of mandamus to compel the issuance of such license in any proper case where the same has been wrongfully and improperly withheld.

1916, ch. 255, sec. 184C.

184C. Whenever the State Insurance Commissioner shall be satisfied that any insurance broker, broker's solicitor, agent or solicitor, licensed or registered by this State, has willfully violated any of the insurance laws of this State, or has willfully misrepresented any policies of insurance, or has dealt unjustly with or willfully deceived any citizen of this State in regard to any insurance policy, or has failed or refused to pay over to the Company or to his principal or other person whom he represents or has represented, or by or for whom he is employed or acts, any money or property in the hands of said agent, solicitor, broker or broker's solicitor belonging to said company, firm, broker, principal or person when demanded to do so, or has violated any ruling of the Insurance Department which he is by law authorized to make, or upon conviction of any infamous crime under the laws of this State, or has been guilty of twisting or attempting to twist by misrepresentation any policy of insurance, or has made any false statement, answer or declaration in his application for license, then and in any such case, the State Insurance Commissioner may and it shall be his
