

Art. 35.

The position of councilman of Snow Hill held to be an "office of profit" within the meaning of this article. The acceptance of this office vacates the office of supervisor of elections held by the same person, and a subsequent resignation from the former does not restore such person to the office of supervisor. Truitt v. Collins, 122 Md. 527. And see State Tax Commission v. Harrington, 126 Md. 162.

The act of 1910, chapter 180 (establishing the public service commission), creates one indivisible office, and does not violate this article. See notes to article 23, section 414 of the code. Thrift v. Laird, 125 Md. 60.

Art. 36.

An ordinance of the City of Baltimore of 1827, in so far as it prohibits the playing of baseball on Sunday in said city, held not to violate this article. Hiller v. State, 124 Md. 388.

CONSTITUTION.*

ARTICLE I.

ELECTIVE FRANCHISE.

Sec. 1.

See notes to article 33, section 12 of the code.

Sec. 1A. The General Assembly of Maryland shall have power to provide by suitable enactment for voting by qualified voters of the State of Maryland who are absent and engaged in the Military or Naval Service of the United States at the time of any election from the ward or election district in which they are entitled to vote, and for the manner in which and the time and place at which such absent voters may vote, and for the canvass and return of their votes.†

Sec. 5.

See notes to article 33, section 12 of the code.

*All amendments to the constitution are printed in brackets following the section as it stood prior to the amendment. For the full text of the constitution (as it stood prior to the amendments herein contained), annotated, see page 1, et seq. of volume 3 of the Annotated Code.

†This amendment to the constitution was proposed by the act of 1918, chapter 20, and is here printed as a matter of convenience, although at this time (May, 1918) it has not been ratified by the people and hence is not a part of the constitution. The people will vote on this amendment at the election to be held in the autumn of 1918.
