1916, ch. 311, sec. 73.

71. Any person who shall secrete, sell, dispose of, offer for sale, purchase, retain after demand by a commissioned officer of the Maryland National Guard, or in any manner pawn or pledge any arms, uniforms, equipments or other military property issued under the provisions of this article, and any person who shall wear any uniform or device, strap, knot or insignia of any design or character used as a designation of grade, rank or office, such as are by law or general regulations duly promulgated and prescribed for the use of the active militia or similar thereto, except members of the Army or Navy of the United States and the National Guard of this or any other States, officers of the independent military organizations as designated in this Article, members of associations wholly composed of soldiers honorably discharged from the service of the United States and members of the Confederate Veterans or like societies, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before a justice of the peace having criminal jurisdiction of the city or county wherein such offence was committed, or by the Circuit Court of the county wherein such offence was committed, or the Criminal Court of Baltimore City, should the accused party prefer a jury trial, shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than fifty dollars for each and every offence, and in default of the payment of the fine and costs shall be committed to the jail of the county or city, as the case may be, until such fine and costs are paid, provided that said term of imprisonment shall not exceed thirty days for each offence; such fines shall be paid to the Adjutant General of the State, who shall apply the same to the use of the active militia.

1916, ch. 311, sec. 74.

72. Any member of the Maryland National Guard who shall wilfully and unlawfully misapply or convert to his own use any money or other property belonging to said National Guard or any organization thereof, or who shall, when lawfully called upon to do so by the proper officer of the said Guard, fail or refuse to pay or deliver to said officer any money or property in his possession, or for which the said member was chargeable or accountable, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before a court of competent jurisdiction, shall be fined a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, or sentenced to imprisonment in jail for a period not exceeding one year, or he shall be both fined or imprisoned, in the discretion of the court.

1916, ch. 311, sec. 75.
