

receipts, disbursements, condition and progress of the said institutions, together with a statement of the number of prisoners, their age, sex, color, place of nativity and conviction, offense, term of confinement, escapes, pardons and discharges, accompanied by such remarks and suggestions as may appear necessary to the advancement of the interests of said institutions. The said Board shall, at the time of making such annual report to the Governor, transmit therewith a statement similar to that required to be made the Comptroller; and the statements and reports required to be made in this and the preceding section shall be duly sworn to by a member of the Board of Welfare, and the Governor shall communicate such statements and reports to the Legislature with such recommendations as he may think expedient.

An. Code, sec. 653. 1916, ch. 556, sec. 653.

699. The warden of each of said institutions shall, within twenty days after the first of October in each year, make to the said Board of Welfare a statement and report of the affairs of their respective institutions setting out the matters and facts required in the next preceding Section in so far as said matters and facts may relate to the affairs of the institution of which he is warden, and the statement and report required to be made in this Section shall be duly sworn to by the warden and clerk of the institution concerning which said statement and report may be made.

An. Code, sec. 654. 1916, ch. 556, sec. 654. 1918, ch. 196, sec. 654.

700. When any person is convicted, before any Circuit Court of any County, or the Criminal Court of Baltimore, of any crime, committed after this Act takes effect, and punishable by any imprisonment whatsoever or by fine and imprisonment (other than imprisonment in default of fine), said Court may, in its discretion, sentence such person to imprisonment in jail or in the Maryland House of Correction or in the Maryland Penitentiary. The term of such imprisonment in any of said institutions shall be in the discretion of the Court, unless a maximum term of imprisonment is prescribed by law, in which event the imprisonment imposed shall not exceed the maximum so fixed. Provided, however, that no sentence to the Penitentiary or House of Correction shall be for less than three months; except that any sentence under section 460 of Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, title "Crimes and Punishments," sub-title "Railroads—Obstructing" may be imposed in accordance with the provisions of said section 460. Wherever the Board of Welfare shall determine that prison discipline will be furthered by transferring from the Maryland House of Correction to the Maryland Penitentiary or from the Maryland Penitentiary to Maryland House of Correction any person sentenced to either of said institutions for a crime committed after this Act takes effect and shall issue its warrant to the Wardens of said Institution directing such transfer then the said sentence of the Court shall operate to authorize such transfer by virtue hereof. All persons now confined in the Maryland Penitentiary may be transferred to the Maryland House of Correction by the Board of Welfare upon the issuance of its warrant as above provided.
