

of twenty-five dollars for the use of the State, and an additional sum of one dollar as a fee to the said commissioner for issuing said license, obtain a license to act as broker as to risks situated in the county only within which he, they or it may reside. A license issued to a copartnership or corporation shall authorize only those members of the copartnership, not exceeding three in number, who are specified in the license, or those officers, agents and employees of the corporation, not exceeding three in number, who are specified in the license, to act for the said copartnership or for the said corporation thereunder. The Insurance Commissioner shall from time to time, upon application, and payment of an additional sum of fifty cents in each case as a fee to the Insurance Commissioner, change the designations of members of copartnerships and of officers, agents and employees of corporations in licenses issued under this section to copartnerships and corporations. Every application for a license under this section shall be addressed to the Insurance Commissioner in writing on forms prescribed and prepared by him, and shall set forth in full the name and address of such applicant and the name and address of each person who proposes to act under a license issued as aforesaid to any copartnership or corporation, that each such applicant or person proposing to act under such license has not wilfully violated any of the insurance laws of this State during the past year and that he will not violate any such law during the term of the license applied for if issued; that he has not dealt unjustly with or deceived any citizen of this State or misrepresented the conditions of any insurance policy or contract; whether or not he is indebted to any insurance company or general agent by virtue of any contract as former agent or broker, whether or not his license as insurance agent or broker has been declined or revoked in this or any other State for a violation of law; where and in what business engaged during the past year, and in addition to such other information as the Insurance Commissioner may require, shall give full answers to the following questions: Do you understand that it is against the laws of this State (a) to act as a broker for any company without license from this department, (b) to misrepresent the conditions of any policy contract, (c) to make any discrimination between citizens of this State in premiums, or to rebate any part of premiums or commissions, or to twist or attempt to twist policies by misrepresentation. Said application and declaration shall be signed by the person, a member of the copartnership, or a duly authorized officer of the corporation applying as the case may be. If any such license shall be issued for any portion of any year, a ratable sum shall be charged therefor up to the first day of May next succeeding the date of such application.

1922, ch. 492, sec. 66.

69. Broker's Solicitor. Any person who shall be a bona fide employee of a duly licensed and qualified broker and not duly operating under a broker's license in conformity with the provisions of section 68 of this article, and who, for compensation, whether by way of salary or commission, or both, shall solicit on behalf of and in the name of his said employer, and not in his own name, or in any manner aids his said employer in
