

Twelve Dollars ($12) per month for the oldest child, Ten Dollars ($10) per month for the next oldest child, and Six Dollars ($6) per month for each additional child, not at any time, however, exceeding forty dollars ($40) per month for any one family. And the Board of Estimates and the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, and the County Commissioners of the respective Counties of this State are authorized and directed to levy such tax, not exceeding one-tenth of a mill, as may be necessary and sufficient to carry out the provisions of this sub-title, or to provide for the same out of the proceeds of the general tax levy.

An. Code, sec. 24. 1916, ch. 670, sec. 6.

26. It shall be the duty of the County Commissioners in the several Counties wherein applicant or petitioner resides, or the Board for Mothers' Relief for Baltimore City, wherein applicant or petitioner resides, to see that any widow mother thus committed to their care, pursuant to the provisions of this sub-title, is properly caring for her children; that they are sufficiently clothed and fed; that they attend school regularly and that said family shall be visited at least once every two months.

The County Commissioners, in the County in which applicant or petitioner resides or the Board for Mothers' Relief for Baltimore City shall report to the Juvenile Court, or, if none exists, to the Circuit Court in such County or to the Juvenile Court for Baltimore City, in the case of any widow mother who does not properly care for and educate her child or children, or when they find that she no longer needs such support. The Circuit Court or the Juvenile Court shall thereupon revoke any order made pursuant to this sub-title, at any time, with or without notice, and in lieu thereof make any order that in the judgment of the Court may protect the welfare of the child or children.

An. Code, sec. 25. 1916, ch. 670, sec. 7.

27. Should the fund or funds available be insufficient to permit of an allowance to only a part of the mothers coming within the provisions of this sub-title, the County Commissioners in the several Counties or the Board for Mothers' Relief for Baltimore City, shall select in their discretion those in most urgent need of such allowance, and submit such selections, after full investigation, to the Circuit or Juvenile Court of such Counties or to the Juvenile Court for Baltimore City for approval, which shall accept the same or make a different selection on its own account, which shall then be conclusive.

An. Code, sec. 26. 1916, ch. 670, sec. 8.

28. The Board for Mothers' Relief for Baltimore City shall have the power to employ assistant investigators, not at any time to exceed three, at a salary of nine hundred dollars ($900) per year for each investigator, at such time that the Board finds itself physically unable to conduct investigations, by reason of the burden of work, whose duties shall be to thoroughly investigate all applications or petitions and to make stated visits to the homes of the applicants or petitioners and for such other work as the Board
