

Board of County Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to borrow such amount as shall be required for said purpose for the year 1924, and issue their script as evidence of the obligation, and to include in the next succeeding tax levy the amount necessary to repay such loan or loans.

1924, ch. 277, sec. 8.

85. The State Roads Commission shall, on or before January 15, 1925, and January 15, 1926, respectively, ascertain, on the same basis as hereinbefore set forth, the amount to which each county will be entitled in the balance of the proceeds to be derived from the sale of bonds to be dated June 15, 1925, and June 15, 1926, respectively, and shall immediately and not later than January 15, 1925, and January 15, 1926, respectively, send notice thereof to the County Commissioners of the respective counties, and it shall thereupon become the duty of the proper authorities in each county, during the years 1925 and 1926, respectively, to provide, by any of the methods hereinbefore set forth, an equal amount to represent the said county's share of said lateral road fund for 1925 and 1926, respectively, and the same powers and duties shall rest upon the Boards of County Commissioners of the several counties and the State Roads Commission with reference to said funds to be raised and used during 1925 and 1926, respectively, as those hereinbefore conferred for 1924.

86. One-half of the cost of construction of all lateral roads which shall be built in pursuance of the provisions of this Act, shall be paid by the State out of the proceeds from the sale of bonds set apart in the manner hereinbefore provided, to the counties in which such roads are respectively located, and the remaining one-half with the funds to be provided by said counties, respectively, as herein directed.

87. Those portions of the proceeds from the sale of the bonds or certificates of indebtedness herein authorized, which are herein appropriated to meet obligations imposed upon the State by its assent to any Act or Acts of Congress appropriating Federal aid to the several States in the construction of rural post roads, shall be used by the State Roads Commission, subject to the conditions and provisions contained in said Act or Acts of Congress, in the construction of rural post roads throughout the State, provided, however, that said funds shall be expended in the several counties of the state in the same ratio as the county road mileage of each county bears to the entire county road mileage of the State.

88. If the Congress of the United States shall fail on or before December 15, 1924, or December 15, 1925, or December 15, 1926, respectively, to pass legislation appropriating from the Federal Treasury funds for the construction during said years 1924, 1925 and 1926, respectively, of
