An. Code, sec. 123. 1904, sec. 111. 1902, ch. 589. 1904, ch. 93.

151. From and after a period of one month subsequent to the first day of April, in the year 1904, every association or corporation doing business in the State of Maryland employing wage-workers, whether skilled or ordinary laborers, engaged in manual or clerical work, in the business of mining, manufacturing, operating an electric railroad, street railway, telegraph, telephone or express company, shall make payment in lawful money of the United States semi-monthly to said employees, laborers and wage-workers, or to their authorized agents, at their respective places of employment, at intervals of not more than sixteen days and not more than fourteen days. In case any said corporations or associations doing business as aforesaid, or any of their officers, shall refuse to make payment at the times above set forth to their wage-workers, laborers or other employees the wages due them or any of them, said association, corporation or officer so refusing shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be liable to indictment therefor, and, upon conviction, shall be fined a sum not exceeding two hundred dollars for each offense.

This section is a duplicate of art. 27, sec. 532.

An. Code, sec. 124. 1904, sec. 112. 1894, ch. 629, sec. 104A.

152. No corporation incorporated under the laws of this State, for any purpose whatsoever, nor any foreign corporation doing business in this State, shall offer to procure or act as agent for any person or persons in procuring or making any loan of money or other valuable thing on the security of any chattels, nor shall make any loan of money or of any other valuable thing on the security of any chattels or otherwise, except in its own proper corporate name and for its own behalf or benefit; and no such corporation making any such loan, as aforesaid; shall be entitled to charge any borrower of money from it, or shall take from any borrower from it, or other person, any other thing for or in the name of premium, or of compensation for renewing or continuing any such loan as it may be authorized to lawfully make, than lawful interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, for the term during which such loan shall be renewed or continued; and every security taken by any such corporation for any such loan as aforesaid shall express plainly the period of time for which such loan is made, and the entire interest agreed to be paid for said loan for the term of such loan, which entire interest shall in no case nor by any means be made to exceed the rate of six per centum per annum on the money or other thing loaned for the term of such loan; and any contract or security for any such loan,

The forfeiture of the charter for non-payment of franchise tax is not a self-executing provision, but may only be enforced by state. Such non-payment is no defense in an action by a creditor against a stockholder under sec. 147. Act of 1900, ch. 272, criticised. Murphy v. Wheatley, 102 Md. 503. And see Frost v. Frostburg Coal Co., 24 How. 278.
