

material and of a pattern to be approved by the said Game Warden to prevent ingress and egress of such deer or elk as are kept thereon.

(c) Such elk or deer or other game so kept in an enclosure shall be deemed as personal property of the owner as fully to all intents and purposes as other personal property.

1927, ch. 568, sec. 65. 1929, ch. 416, sec. 65.

62. It shall be unlawful for any person, his, her or their aiders or abettors, to enter upon any game preserve or refuge used for the propagation of game in this State, where such preserve or refuge is enclosed with fencing as required by law under this sub-title, for the purpose of stealing game birds, or eggs or game animals, therein, or to hunt, pursue, catch, kill, trap, shoot or attempt to hunt, pursue, catch, kill, trap or shoot or wound or disturb any game birds while roosting, take or catch any game birds or game animals in or on such preserve or refuge, either in the daytime or night time, with the use of spot-light, flash-light, search-light or any artificial light or battery, sulphur, fire, snare, net, deerlick, or pitfall, turkey blind or turkey pen or any other means whatsoever, nor shall any person destroy any part of the fencing about said preserve or refuge in any manner whatsoever nor enter into such preserve or refuge and drive or attempt to drive any game birds or game animals therefrom, either in the daytime or in the night time, except with the written consent of the owner or owners thereof.

Any person violating any of the provisions of Sections 60, 61 and 62, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction before any Justice of the Peace of this State shall be fined not less than One Hundred ($100) Dollars nor more than Five Hundred ($500) Dollars and cost or sentenced to imprisonment in the House of Correction for a period of not less than six months, nor more than one year for each and every offense and shall be subject to both fine and said imprisonment in the discretion of the Court, and in addition to said fine, shall be fined Five ($5) Dollars for each any every game bird, eggs of same, or game animal sold or offered for sale or taken or molested in violation of the law as provided in Sections 60, 61 and 62; and the license shall be revoked and game on said property confiscated by order of the Game Warden.

1927, ch. 568, sec. 66.

63. It shall be unlawful for any licensee, or his agent, or employee, to neglect to return to the Game Warden any tag with the information thereon required, or to kill, sell, give away, remove or ship any game bred or raised, unless first notifying the Game Warden and making application to kill, sell, give away, remove or ship.

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person to neglect to remove and return to the Game Warden any tag attached to any container, or to any game.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person to remove or destroy any tag attached to any container or bird or animal except in the manner and at the time and place provided by law.