

in addition to the detective patrolmen hereinbefore provided for, and subject to the restrictions hereinafter set forth; twenty-four (24) turnkeys; twenty-five (25) signal and telephone operators; eight (8) station-house clerks, and such number of clerks for duty at police headquarters as may in the judgment of the said Commissioner be necessary. The Police Commissioner shall appoint no patrolmen in excess of eleven hundred and fifty (1,150) prior to the first day of January, 1924.

The members of the police force shall receive the following salaries, payable every two weeks. The chief inspector shall receive four thousand dollars ($4,000) per annum; and the other three inspectors, thirty-five hundred dollars ($3,500) each per annum; the captain assigned to have charge of the detective office shall receive sixty dollars ($60) per week, and each other captain shall receive fifty dollars ($50) per week; the lieutenant assigned to have charge of the Bureau of Identification shall receive forty-seven dollars ($47) per week, and all other lieutenants and lieutenant detectives shall receive forty-three dollars ($43) per week; each sergeant and sergeant detective, thirty-six dollars and fifty cents ($36.50) per week; each turnkey, thirty-two dollars and fifty cents ($32.50) per week; each patrolman, including detective patrolmen, shall receive twenty-seven dollars and fifty cents ($27.50) per week during the first year of his service, thirty dollars ($30) during the second year and thirty-two dollars and fifty cents ($32.50) per week thereafter; each station-house clerk shall receive thirty-two dollars and fifty cents per week; and each clerk not otherwise provided for in this section shall receive thirty-two dollars and fifty cents ($32.50) per week; and each signal and telephone operator shall receive twenty-seven dollars and fifty cents ($27.50) per week. In addition to the salaries herein provided for, each member of the Police Department, except the inspectors of police, shall be entitled to additional compensation after serving five years to the amount of two and one-half per cent. (2½%) of the salary of his grade or position; after serving ten years, five per cent. (5%) of the salary of his grade or position; after fifteen years, seven and one-half per cent. (7½%) of the salary of his grade or position; after twenty years, ten per cent. (10%) of the salary of his grade or position; after twenty-five years, twelve and one-half per cent. (12½%) of the salary of his grade or position; after thirty years, fifteen per cent. (15%) of the salary of his grade or position. All patrolmen during their first and second years' service shall be known and regarded as patrolmen on probation and shall not be entitled to receive advancement in salary herein provided, unless their services during said probationary period have been satisfactory to the said Police Commissioner, and unless they are certified to said Commissioner by the Police Physicians as physically qualified to continue to discharge the duties of a patrolman, and if their services during said probationary period have not been satisfactory, or if they are not so certified by the Police Physicians, any such patrolman shall, in the discretion of the Commissioner, cease to be a member of the force.